

- Drama is a type of literature telling a story, which is intended to be performed to an audience.
- Generally, while drama is the printed text of a play, the word theatre often refers to the actual production of the text on the stage. Theatre thus involves action taking place on the stage, the lighting, the scenery, the accompanying music, the costumes, the atmosphere

---

Task 1

Elements of drama quiz

Use your Knowledge of elements of drama ! Match the definition to the correct drama term. Write the matching letter in the blank.

-----1. Instructions that tell the actors what to do

-----2. This is when and where the play takes place

-----3. Stories acted out in front of people or an audience

-----4. This person tells the story and informs the “audience” or reader of background information. This person is not a character in the story.

-----5. A large part of the play kind of like a chapter

-----6. Lines of a text the character speaks in the play

-----7. Smaller parts of the play, it helps us know that the setting or characters have changed

-----8. People, animals, or things that are characters in the play

A. Acts

B. Actors

C. Narrator

D. Scene

E. Drama

F. Dialogue

G. Setting

H. Stage

---

Task 2

Write the word groups in the right place

(actor, actress, audience, director, cast, make up artist & playwright)
(backstage, box office, dressing room & stage) (Hamlet, Peter Pan, Romeo and Juliet), setting, exposition, climax & resolution) (costumes, (characters curtains, lights & script).

