

Huge cities of Europe: Paris and London

1. Fill in the schema.

2. Which information relates to Paris and which to London? Put an X in the appropriate column. Some descriptions apply to both of these cities.

	Which country is described in the following sentences?	Paris	London
1	It is situated in the river valley.
2	An important international transport hub, in the vicinity of which there are several airports.
3	A significant part of the population comes from Africa and the Caribbean region.
4	Many of the inhabitants come from Asia, for example from India.
5	A huge, densely built city surrounded by smaller towns.
6	Expressways and highways radiate from the city centre.
7	It is primarily associated with finance and trade.
8	It is sometimes called the world capital of fashion.
9	It was founded about 2,000 years ago. There are world-class monuments in it.

3. Which city is it? Write: Paris or London.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....